the present fee. He has, however, not given any strong reasons for his stand. He says that the burden will fall on the poor ignorant ryots. However, he is under the impression that the fee will be raised to one rupee and not to eight annas.

46) Mr. Mg of Police is agreeable to the raising of the fee to one rupee, probably because the original petition asking for an increase to one rupee was sent to him for opinion and not the Dewan's opinion that it may be raised to eight annas.

To

The District Magistrates of all Districts.

Sir,

I am directed to state that a ~~represent-~~ suggestion ~~tion~~ has been received by Government ~~pro-~~ recommending ~~posing~~ the raising of the fee for the grant ~~of~~ & renewal of gun licensees from annas 4 to Re. 1/-. ~~But Government consider~~ that the ~~existing fee which is very low may with ad-~~ ~~vantage be raised to annas eight and request~~ ~~that they may be favoured~~ with your views in the matter at an early date.

Though the increase proposed may perhaps be considered to be there seems to be no objection to raising it. 4 annas as the present fee of 4 annas is very low. The Govt. will be glad to be favoured
